THE OLD AND THE NEW .- The church and fire bells of the city commercial, Baturday night, a little before midnight, to toll out the vest 1881. Promptly at 12 o'cleck the Town Bell pealed forth the birth of the new year, 1882, followed by the joyous ringing of all the other hells. The entrance of the new year was also elabrated by the firing of cannons and the explosion of cappon crackers in the streets. Watch menions were held in several of the while and colored Methodist Churches, where avises appropriate to the dying of the old and the enterior of the new year were conducted. There were also many see al gatherings throughour the cay, and the te & year was bailed with placiness by a large number of "sitters up." Y as erday deward clear, but very cold. Notwithstanding the "cold weather" could have then provides an exerce. the churches where remes appropriate to the day were held, all at large congregations. Each individual in he city adepted a new set of resolutions to be carried into cif of during the coming year, and the chu c'i going yesterday was one of the resal s. All the ministers looked back into the nest, and the retrospect not being very pleasing, urged their flooks to a faithful discharge of ir duties during the year upon which they hips entered.
